

August 25 – Destination Peaceful Pines Resort, Eagle River WI

The morning was overcast and drizzly. After a leisurely morning in the park we went downtown Eagle River, breakfasting at The Daily Grind Coffee Shop. I had a spectacular salad while Kai enjoyed a breakfast sandwich, and the dogs got a scramble egg.

We visited the Depot Museum and the visitor center. We then took cover in the RV until the rain was done.

Then the woods called, and I hiked through the area. I saw the last of the wildflowers and many deer.

Honey Bear Inn does not have outdoor dining, but the write ups were all correct about the delicious food. We both had cod, one broiled in a bowl with butter and the other battered and fried. The Bloody Mary was one of the best I have ever had.

Home again, home again.
