

August 30 – Peaceful Pines Resort, Eagle River WI

The day starting out sunny and in the 70s. After a comfortable morning with a good book and a game we headed out to Bonds Fall and Agate Falls in Ottawa National Forest. The forest is more hardwoods than pines like in northern Wisconsin. The falls and the forest were outstanding and worth the visit.

Kai and I then returned to The Craftsman American Tavern and sat inside at the bar. Since we were there about 4:30 on a Tuesday there were not many people there. This is a really fine restaurant with a mediocre Brandy Old Fashioned.

What a great day!
