

October 1 – Saco, ME

This was a totally lazy day with some football, cross stitching, reading, and playing games. A Fairy Tale by Stephen King seems appropriate since he is an 'old Maine boy' just like our tour guide. The trees in within the campground are turning. We went back to the Bait Shed at high tide and with no wind and in the mid-60s, it was an excellent experience.

