

October 9 – Kutztown PA

We woke up to a beautiful yet a little chilly morning and took a walk through the apple orchards. Acres and acres of apple trees, raspberries, blackberries, strawberries, and rhubarb. These were obviously well tended (loved) plants and trees. Great hospitality.

Then we pulled out and drove to Saucony Creek Craft Brewery & Gastropub. Great sandwich and a quiet evening under a full moon.

October 9 – Kutztown PA

